

Third Sunday of Easter

April 10, 2016

REDEMPTION

Do you remember Peter on the night Jesus was arrested? He claimed he had never heard of Jesus. Today we are called to join Peter in testifying to the name of Jesus as he does in the first reading, and in proclaiming our love for him as Peter does in the Gospel passage.

The powerful imagery of John's vision in the second reading from the book of Revelation shows us the company we keep when we have faith in the name of Jesus. We join all living creatures, "countless in number" from "heaven, earth, under the earth, in the sea; everything in the universe" (Revelation 5:11, 13). The dignity and majesty described in each reading are in stark contrast to the dark and pitiful image of Peter and the other apostles at the time of Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion. What a relief that we can all be redeemed so completely!

St. Mary's Center for the homeless

We are still collecting toiletries, small sizes would be best. In addition, socks would be welcome.

The Catholic Worker

We also are still collecting rice, beans, canned and boxed goods, toilet paper, and paper towels.

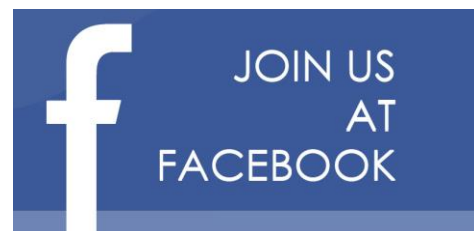

Thank you for your support.

Loving Memory

Our altar flowers this weekend have been provided by Joe Green in loving memory of his son, Brantley Green.

The Diocese of Oakland is conducting a survey that will help inform the development of a communication strategy to better serve the East Bay Catholic community. The survey takes about five minutes to complete. Please take a few minutes to tell us what information regarding your Catholic faith and the Church is most important to you.

The survey is available at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DioOakland> and in the April 11 issue of The Catholic Voice.

A big thank you to Dan Perry!
